Faubus May Withdraw Troops Soon

School Opens Peacefully Today; Guard Lightened

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—National Guardsmen reported for duty at Little Rock Central High School again today amid increasing signs that Gov. Orval Faubus may withdraw them entirely before the end of the week.

Approximately 30 guardsmen took stations at the school this morning when classes resumed at the high school. After reporting, some of them went to a nearby drugstore for coffee.

A week ago, 250 soldiers surrounded the school.

No Negroes attempted to approach the big school building. Between 25 and 30 adults gathered on the sidewalk across the street. In a good-natured mood, they joked with reporters.

Sunday night, Faubus said it is "foreseeable" that the Guards could be withdrawn this week.

He also said "there were certain areas of agreement" that developed in his conference Saturday at Newport, R. I., with President Eisenhower.

BUT HE STILL says Negro students will not be permitted to enroll in the high school until a condition of "tranquility" exists in the city. He will be the judge of when that moment has come, he said.

The prevailing belief in Little Rock today is that Faubus will remove the Guard within a few days, perhaps Wednesday or Thursday.

He has been summoned to appear in U. S. District Court Friday. There, in all probability, he will be asked to present the evidence he claims to have that violence would have taken place at the high school had he not put the Guardsmen there with orders to turn away Negroes.

U. S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies issued a summons to Faubus to appear Friday for a hearing on a petition to enjoin him from interfering with the enrollment of the Negroes.

Faubus' information and FBI reports presumably will be aired if the hearing takes place at all.

Faubus still is sticking to his contention that he acted in response to his information as to what would happen. He said "many of the facts are known to many people."

Faubus was asked if Eisenhower had said anything at Newport that changed his position.

"Not as to the situation that exists locally," Faubus replied. "Any fair-minded person would grant that I would know more about that than anyone outside."

In Cleveland, Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the NAACP, described the Eisenhower-Faubus conference as "blah, blah, blah."

"It seems that both gentlemen left themselves open to inferences that the governor would obey the law and the courts, but not immediately," Wilkins said.

And in Newport, the White House today accused a group of Democrats of "trying to play politics" with the school controversy in Little Rock.

The accusation was fired at the President's vacation headquarters by his press secretary, James C. Hagerty. He was commenting on an assertion by 15 members of the 24-member Democratic Advisory Council that Eisenhower "failed to use the prestige and power of his office against defiance of law" in Little Rock.

THERE WAS NO White House comment on Faubus' assertion that National Guard troops would not be ordered away from Little Rock Central High School today.

The 15 members of the 24-member Democratic Advisory Council asserted the action of Faubus "does not represent the position or policy of the Democratic party."

FRIENDLY AND CONSTRUCTIVE — President Eisenhower (left) says good-bye to Arkansas Governor Orval Faubus at the summer White House in Newport, R. I., after their conference on Arkansas school integration. Gov. Faubus, who assured the president that he would obey the law, said the conference had been both "friendly and constructive."

U.S. Fires New A-Energy Blast

Big Mushroom Cloud Forms Over Desert

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—One of the biggest atomic blasts of the 1957 test series flashed across the desert sky at 5:50 a. m. today. It is believed to have had the power equivalent of about 40,000 tons of TNT.

A deep orange fireball, touched with pink and purple, flared over Yucca Flat. The mushroom cloud so familiar in the tests rose quickly to about 15,000 feet. It was feathery and ice could be seen forming at the top.

The stem consisting of dirt sucked up from the desert floor was a dirty-looking purple. Within five minutes the cloud began breaking away from the stem.

This 20th shot of the series, code named Newton, was a device exploded from a balloon tethered 1,500 feet above the test site.

The explosion was seen as a bluish flash in Los Angeles, 300 miles away.

Twenty-five aircraft participated in today's test on data-collecting and training missions but there was no military participation on the ground.

THE AEC SAID the test included civil effects experiments and was considered a diagnostic detonation.

This was the last test of this series in which newsmen will be permitted to be present on the site. In subsequent tests, with at least two more expected, they can get no nearer than a mountain 40 miles away.

If today's explosion was in the 40 kiloton range it was the biggest of this series except the whopper on July 5, a balloon shot believed to have been in the 60 to 80 kiloton range.

An underground explosion, designed to give earthquake experts valuable data is scheduled for Wednesday.

Lake Tragedy Is Averted

A tragedy was narrowly averted Saturday morning at Memorial Lake when three local men assisted in the rescue of a Lancaster couple whose fishing boat had capsized.

The local men, Ralph Leist, 140 W. Mill; Turney Kraft, Route 4, Circleville; and Bobby Ruff, 30, Bloomfield, were fishing in a boat of their own about 75 yards from the couple, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Welch, when the mishap occurred about 10 a. m.

Mrs. Welch held onto a log while Welch supported himself on the overturned boat until they were pulled from the water. The craft capsized about 200 yards from shore in 25-30 feet of water according to Leist.

Mrs. Welch told Leist that the boat overturned when she had stood up in it. The three local men were assisted in the rescue by two other local men, both unidentified.

MASSILLON HIGH SCHOOL Shut by Bomb-Scare

MASSILLON (AP)—Massillon High School was closed today by a bomb threat scare. Principal I. W. Snyder called off classes Sunday night after receiving an anonymous phone call.

Although the call seemed to be a hoax, Snyder said, it was decided to take no chances after police-men found four windows in the building open and were told by neighbors that three men were acting suspiciously in the school yard shortly after dark. The entire building was being checked today by police and firemen.

18,500 Ohio Bell Aides on Strike

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Communications Workers of America called 18,500 Ohio Bell Telephone Co. employees out on strike at 6 a. m. today.

Picket lines, manned mainly by women operators who make up the largest group of CWA members in Ohio Bell's employ, were on duty at exchanges throughout the state.

In many of the 45 cities where Ohio Bell operates, picket lines had formed long before the strike deadline was reached.

Using supervisory help, the utility continued service. Dial systems kept local calls from being affected by the walkout in most communities, but long distance service was slowed and installations and repair work curtailed.

A spokesman for the CWA said the union offered to provide emergency service during the walkout and also to submit the issues in dispute to arbitration, but that both offers were rejected by the company.

A COMPANY spokesman called the offer to provide emergency service "an old chestnut that the union pulls out as regularly as clockwork whenever there is a strike. Actually, the company's supervisory personnel are prepared to provide even more than the emergency service offered by the union."

As for submitting to arbitration, the spokesman said contracts "are made through collective bargaining, not through arbitration."

A CWA picket at an Ohio Bell installation in Youngstown was struck today by a company foreman, the union reported.

The report came after the company reported its supervisory personnel were having trouble getting past picket lines into the main exchange. The company said it will seek a court order to limit picketing.

Thomas Mitchell, state director of the strike, said in Cleveland he was told a court order would be asked by the CWA local in Youngstown to "restrain management personnel from using force or violence."

Mitchell said he was told by Tom Flynn, an officer of the Youngstown local, that a assault charges would be filed against the foreman who struck a picket.

In Springfield, a woman picket reported she was knocked down by persons entering one of the Ohio Bell buildings this morning.

CARLISLE Milner, Ohio Bell vice president, declared: "This is a strike that never should have happened. It will accomplish nothing that could not

Tito Warns Soviet On 'Interference'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Tito describes Russia as "the first country of socialism" but says the Soviet Union must not interfere with other Red governments.

Tito toasted the Soviet Union Sunday but said Yugoslavia and Poland cannot "copy experiences in a stereotyped manner from the Soviet Union."

"When we speak of the leading role of the Soviet Union," Tito said, "we mean that the Soviet Union, as the first country of socialism (communism), is primarily responsible for the preservation of peace and for just relations between Socialist countries."

DAMASCUS FEELS BLAST

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Two dynamite explosions a hundred yards from the Soviet Embassy shook Damascus today. Police said there were no casualties.

have been gained across the bargaining table.

"We have tried and tried hard to reach agreement with the union. Our immediate concern now is to see that public inconvenience is kept to a minimum for the duration of the work stoppage and to continue our efforts to settle the dispute as soon as possible."

"Most of the cities and towns served by Ohio Bell have dial service and local calls in these towns will go through as usual. The company's supervisory personnel are on the job to provide as near normal long distance service as possible."

"In most labor-management disputes, the union goes on strike after the old contract expires. This one is different. Our contract with the union has not expired."

"It will remain in effect for 60 days after one of the parties gives notice of termination, or until it is superseded by a new contract."

Milner's statement came shortly after Ohio Bell and union officials met at 5:15 a. m. with a federal mediator. The company said it was notified by the union that the president of CWA International had declared Ohio to be strike-bound.

The mediator recessed negotiations until 4 p. m. today. Negotiators for the union and the company were at a downtown hotel from 2 p. m. Sunday until the strike deadline. But they met with mediator Thomas W. Robertson in bargaining sessions only twice—in mid-afternoon and early evening. Each session lasted less than an hour and brought no change in positions.

WESTERN Electric Co. across the nation also had a 6 a. m. strike deadline. The CWA in Ohio had tied a strike of 23,800 Western Electric installers and a strike against Ohio Bell together. Both companies are American Telephone and Telegraph Co. affiliates and Western Electric operates in 44 states including Ohio.

Ohio CWA members were pledged to back Western Electric employees in any work stoppage by observing picket lines even if a settlement with Ohio Bell had been achieved.

The company's final offer in the Ohio Bell negotiations was for a 15-month contract granting $2.50 to $5 weekly pay increases or for a one-year contract with raises of from $2 to $4.50. Ohio Bell said this offer would add $5 million to the utility payroll costs.

The union rejected the offer, but did not disclose its wage demands for what it insisted must be a one-year contract.

The last Ohio Bell offer, the company said, would have raised operators' pay rates to a range of from $61 to $70.50 a week and rates for top-rated plant craftsmen to a range of from $105 to $115.50 weekly, depending on the city of employment.

PAWTUCKET, R. I. (AP)—Public schools opened today for 10,000 students as 400 striking teachers bowed to a court order. But the Teachers' Alliance said the strike for higher pay would resume if a stay of an injunction is obtained.

On strike since school opening day, Sept. 4, the teachers returned to classrooms this morning after voting to comply with a Superior Court injunction.

The Superior Court held the strike illegal. School authorities rejected a teachers' request that the effective hour of the injunction be delayed until after today's Supreme Court hearing.

Chief Justice Under Fire

'We The People' Also Raps Income Taxes

CHICAGO (AP)—We, The People ended a two-day convention Sunday after urging the impeachment of Earl Warren, Supreme Court chief justice, and attacking the federal income tax.

Some 500 delegates from 32 states voted on the impeachment resolution. They said it was a protest of the court's recent order opening relevant FBI files to persons accused of being Communist Party members.

The resolution also asked that other Supreme Court justices be removed if "found to be guilty of conspiring with him (Warren) to aid enemies of our Republic in contravention of their sworn duty to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

We, The People is a non-profit, non-partisan organization. Members describe themselves as dedicated to limited constitutional government. A cut in income taxes is a major goal.

Kit Clardy, former Michigan Republican congressman (1953-54) told the delegates, "Victory at any price is the watchword of leadership of both (major political) parties today."

"AN APATHETIC public must be made to understand that their children's birthright is being stolen."

J. Bracken Lee, former Utah Governor, said the federal income tax is "incompatible with freedom for the simple reason that it places with the tax collector the power to pry into a person's private affairs."

Lee lost a court fight this year to withhold his income taxes. He said more than 80 per cent of the tax is paid by persons making less than $6,000 a year.

"(It income tax) started out to be a rich man's tax but now it is a poor man's tax," Lee declared.

Delaware Cops Probe Attack On Woman

DELAWARE (AP)—Authorities say Mrs. Jeannette Martin of Delaware was hit over the head several times with a hammer Sunday, almost a year to the day that her husband shot and critically wounded her.

The Delaware County sheriff's office today held Barry Robinson, 18, of Delaware, an Ohio Reformatory parolee, for investigation in the hammer-beating.

Robinson was not charged immediately.

On Sept. 13, 1956, Mrs. Martin was shot by her husband, Joe, whom she subsequently divorced. Sheriff Harvel Wornstaff said: "Martin served six months in county jail for that offense."

Wornstaff said that Robinson admitted stopping at Mrs. Martin's home Sunday to borrow tools to repair his bicycle. But the sheriff quoted Robinson as saying someone else walked up behind Mrs. Martin and struck her.

Mrs. Martin, a probation officer at Girls Industrial School here, had four stitches taken in her head at Jane M. Case Hospital, the sheriff reported. She was to undergo X-ray examination today to determine if she suffered a skull fracture.

HURRICANE Carrie Threatens Bermuda

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Carrie threatened Bermuda with 50-mile-an-hour winds today and the Air Force pulled back its hurricane hunter airplanes to safety at West Palm Beach, Fla.

The Weather Bureau said the storm, with peak winds of 115 miles an hour, was located 175 miles east of Bermuda. Little change was expected in size or intensity the following 12 hours.

The hurricane was moving toward the west northwest at 11 to 12 miles an hour.

COLUMBUS (AP)—A total of 26 persons were killed in accidents in Ohio last week. Of the total, 17 died in traffic mishaps.

Adenauer Pledges Closer West Ties

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer won an immense election triumph today and immediately pledged that West Germany would throw "all its political and moral weight" behind the Western alliance.

The 81-year-old Chancellor was returned to power for another four years in Sunday's voting in a victory so complete it stunned his neutral-minded Socialist opponents and surprised even his own supporters. The Communists in East Germany were glum.

His Christian Democratic Union, which won an absolute majority for the first time in a free German election four years ago, not only retained that majority but increased it in an outpouring of more than 31 million votes.

Adenauer's third straight national election victory since the West German republic was created in 1949 was a heavy blow to the Soviet Union and a triumph for the United States. Fearful of West Germany's mounting economic and military power, the Russians had pulled all possible strings in an effort to defeat the iron-willed Chancellor.

They went all-out to convince the West Germans that he should be overthrown in favor of the Socialists, who wanted to pull West Germany into a more neutral position.

A VICTORY for the Socialists could have forced a drastic readjustment of U. S. policy in Europe. As the Socialists and minor parties conceded defeat, Speaker Eugene Gerstenmaier announced the new Parliament will convene Oct. 10 or 11 in Berlin, the old capital of the Reich.

Presumably Parliament will use this session 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain of Communist East Germany to name Adenauer to his third term as chancellor. The East German propaganda machine kept up its attack on Adenauer to the very last.

Complete official returns from all 247 election districts showed 3,058,319 votes, of which 29,885,946 were valid.

The Christian Democrats had 14,998,754 or 50.18 per cent compared with 45.2 per cent in the 1953 national election.

The Socialists received 9,490,726 or 31.75 per cent against 28.8 per cent in 1953. The Free Democrats polled 2,304,846 or 7.7 per cent compared with 9.5 per cent last time.

The Refugee party had 1,973,001 or 4.59 per cent against 5.9 per cent in 1953.

THE GERMAN party, Adenauer's coalition ally in the outgoing government, received 1,066,350 or 3.36 per cent against 3.3 per cent last time.

The Nazi-like German Reich Party had 307,310 votes or 1.02 per cent compared with 1.1 per cent in 1953.

The Federal Election Office announced that the Christian Democrats had won 270 seats in the new Parliament. They won 267 and then received a bonus of three seats under the complicated election law.

The Socialists won 169, the Free Democrats 41 and the German party 17.

Airliner Falls Into Swamp; 10 Killed; 14 Others Hurt

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—A Northeast Airlines plane with 24 persons aboard, flying from Boston to New York through fog, crashed and broke up in a wooded area Sunday night.

The pilot, copilot and eight passengers were killed. Thirteen passengers and the hostess were injured and hospitalized. Doctors immediately placed at least five on the danger list.

The plane was only half a mile from the New Bedford Municipal Airport and was preparing to make a scheduled instrument landing when it crashed through trees and swamp growth and cracked up on a tiny knoll.

Two airport employees said they heard the plane crash at 8:50 p. m. but it was nearly three hours before the first rescue team could reach the scene. The only access to the spot was by foot. Fire fighters' ladders were used as bridges across the swamp and the adjoining Paskamansett River.

The plane, a twin-engine DC3, was on a flight from Boston to Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard, New Bedford and New York.

Due in New Bedford at 7:42 p. m., it took off from Martha's Vineyard almost an hour late because of the murky weather.

Wesley Lagoon, on duty at the New Bedford airport control tower, last heard from the plane at 8:46 p. m.

He said the plane radioed the control tower that it was making a routine approach on instrument landing. Lagoon called back but got no response.

He said the ceiling at the airport was 200 feet, visibility was one mile and it was foggy.

Four minutes after contacting the airport, the plane crashed. It broke up into several sections but there was no fire.

Nancy Lehan, 24, Brockton, Mass., the stewardess, said the plane was making the approach to New Bedford airport when it hit tree tops and crashed. She added that there was no warning of the crash from the pilot.

The pilot, Vincent L. Pitts, 35, Wellesley, Mass., was a combat flier in World War II and flew in the Berlin airlift of 1948-49 before he was made a flight captain by Northeast Airlines in 1953.

Copilot Roger W. Sweetland Jr., 33, Arlington, Mass., joined Northeast as a pilot in 1952 and was made a flight captain in 1956.

Two-Year Job Virtually Completed

C. F. Replogle Finishes Project Ahead of Schedule

Tentative opening of the new Route 23 by-pass around Circleville is set for Friday, according to the State Highway Department.

It was announced today that the $3,161,717 project is virtually completed and official opening ceremonies are tentatively planned for Friday.

The opening of the by-pass, long awaited locally, will be the sixth link in a chain of Route 23 projects which make the vital arterial highway four-lane from Portsmouth to Delaware.

Only one more project, near Chillicothe, is to be finished before the high-priority road job is completed.

Starting probably Friday the heavy through traffic will be taken off Court St. which bisects the city. The road will pass west of the city with intersections at Main St. and Mound St., in the heart of town.

CONTRACTOR for the huge highway job is C. F. Replogle Construction Co. of Circleville. Work was begun early last year. Scheduled completion date was Nov. 20, 1957.

The by-pass is 6.3 miles long. It leaves the present Route 23 3 1/2 miles north of the city limits, and rejoins the route about three-tenths of a mile south of the city limits.

The four-lane highway is a limited access road. It includes an underpass at the Island Road intersection, an overpass over Route 22, spans over the Pennsylvania and C & O Railroads and another bridge over Hargus Creek.

A ribbon-cutting ceremony is now in the works. Originally the opening was set for Oct. 1, according to Frank M. Williams, division deputy director of the State Highway Department.

However, good weather the last month has advanced opening the by-pass by two weeks.

Williams reported that he felt the by-pass would be ready by Friday. Only erection of signs needs to be done before the state accepts the work, he said. There is a possibility that the opening may be put off until next Monday, but plans are being laid for the Friday opening.

2 Dover Robbers Pick Up $13,000

DOVER (AP)—Two robbers, who tied up a supermarket owner and his wife and her sister and left them in a vegetable cooler room, escaped with $13,000 and a $1,500 diamond ring late Saturday.

Herbert Mason said the robbers, both carrying guns, met him in the parking lot as he left the store.

School Aid Hits $837,000

Yearly Sum Up About 15 Per Cent

Circleville and Pickaway County schools received $837,000.57 in federal and state aid during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1957 according to a report released today by State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The amount received was an increase of about 15 per cent over the previous fiscal year. Of the total, $795,227.86 was received from the state school foundation program.

Car, Service Station Hit By Burglars

A Circleville man's car was robbed and a Laureville service station burglarized during the weekend according to reports of the city police and county sheriff's office respectively.

A suitcase, shaving bag, mens pants, shirts, underwear, socks and handkerchiefs were among the articles removed from the car of William Kirby, 347 E. Main St.

Police report that the car, parked outside of Kirby's residence, was entered by the rear glass being rolled down and the front door then unlocked. The robbery was reported at 5:26 a. m. today.

A cloth overnight bag containing ladies handkerchiefs, two mens shirts and soap, were found on the scene by police.

A BURGLARY OF THE Sohio Station in Laureville was reported to the sheriff's office at 8 a. m. today. Four or five silver dollars, and another dollar in small change were removed from the cash register according to Sheriff's Deputy Dwight Radcliff.

Entry was gained by the breaking of glass in a rolling door on the east side of the station.

Workshop Plans Session Today

There will be a meeting of the teachers planning committee for the county teachers conservation workshop at 4 p. m. today in the courthouse offices of Superintendent of County Schools George McDowell.

Robert Finlay of the State Department of Education will be at the meeting to discuss the conservation workshop scheduled for October 11. The planning committee is made up of one teacher from each county school district.

Rising Prices Being Battled On 2 Fronts

Words, Credit Used
In Twin-Pronged Joust
Against Cost Spiral

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — The battle against rising prices has been waged largely on two fronts — words and credit.

Denunciation of the rising cost of living has been heard all over the land from cottages to the White House. The Federal Reserve Board has tried to hold down speculative inflation by keeping borrowing expensive and credit hard to get.

Prices have kept right on rising, nevertheless.

Must the cost of living keep on rising if everyone is to have a well-paying job? Can we get stable or lower prices only by risking or inviting a depression? That is the direction the debate is taking now.

Prices on many goods go on rising although there are many signs that demand is slackening.

This gives a rosy if somewhat dubious glow to many statistics, such as retail sales, inventories, the total of personal incomes.

To keep the financial aspects of the price upsurge under constant study President Eisenhower is setting up a group of top flight officials.

Effectiveness of the Federal Reserve's policy of keeping money tight is confirmed today by the U.S. Treasury in offering investors 4 per cent on three billion dollars of its securities — an offer that sent down the price of its order bonds, bearing a much lower interest rate.

Although many now think a slackening in business activity is more likely than a resumption of the boom, they doubt if this in itself will halt the rise in prices right away.

Their argument is that even if sales fall off, business may go right on seeking higher prices to counter a declining profit margin and labor may go on demanding higher wages with the still rising cost of living as one reason.

They contend that this could lead to a drop in unit sales, an increase in inventories, and finally a cut in production and in employment — with rising prices keeping the dollar volume of the statistics still glowing.

A management spokesmen, the National Assn. of Manufacturers, has just announced that a study of the after-tax profit margin on sales show them to be dropping, proving that "the current inflationary rush is due to rising costs of labor and the continuing heavy tax burden, and not the greed of manufacturers for exorbitant profits."

DONALD RICHARD SHEARION

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

DONALD RICHARD SHEARION is being sought by the FBI for violation of the White Slave Traffic Act. He is alleged to have transported his victim to Cleveland, Ohio, from Buffalo, N. Y., in October, 1956. In Cleveland the victim was allegedly engaged in prostitution activities.

A Federal Grand Jury at Buffalo on Dec. 19, 1956, returned an indictment charging Shearion with a violation of the White Slave Traffic Act.

The wanted man's aliases include Don Darondo, James Gislser, Rico Danese Pallentino, Don Darondo Shearion, Donald Shearion, Donald Richard Shearion, Don Sin, James Gislser, "Gravelyard," "Sin," "Toronto" and others.

Shearion's occupations include cook, electrician and laborer. He reportedly carries a .45 Luger pistol. He previously escaped from confinement. He should be considered armed and extremely dangerous. He has been convicted of petty larceny, interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicle, larceny and receiving stolen goods.

DESCRIPTION: Age, 22; Born, Boston, Mass.; Height, 5 feet 10 inches; Weight, 154 to 170; Build, medium; Hair, black; Eyes, brown; Complexion, dark brown. Has 2-inch scar on upper right leg, scar on right elbow, scar on right forearm and tattoo on left upper arm. He may wear a mustache.

INFORMATION concerning fugitive should be telephoned to the nearest FBI office. Distributed by King Features Syndicate

List of Leaders Growing For Weekly Prayer Meets

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Increasing numbers of the nation's leaders are quietly meeting in weekly prayer sessions to seek guidance and strength in discharging their heavy responsibilities.

In Washington there are now 19 such groups, including two on Capitol Hill, several in the Pentagon and one at the Federal Trade Commission. A group from the State, Commerce and Agriculture Departments officials meet every Tuesday at the YMCA.

There was much talk of a "religious revival" when the new prayer room in the Capitol was readied in 1955 for use by members of Congress for moments of quiet meditation. Actually, some members have been gathering at weekly prayer meeting breakfasts at the Capitol since 1941 to "ponder ways and means of living amid the world's problems in a manner acceptable to God."

Though they shun publicity, at least 35 senators have been meeting each Wednesday in the Vandenberg Room, and more than 60 members of the House in the House Restaurant on Thursdays. Sen. John Stennis (D - Miss) is chairman of the Senate group and Rep. L. H. Fountain (D-SC) is chairman of the House group.

The idea for the prayer meeting clubs started in 1933, in Seattle, Wash., and has snowballed throughout the United States and many other countries. There are about 130 clubs in the United States, some of them made up of women.

The groups function under International Christian Leadership which is an interdenominational organization. Princess Wilhelmina of the Netherlands is honorary president of the international council, and Sen. Carlson (R-Kan) is president. Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark) is a vice president along with Gustav Gede of the German Bundestag and John Henderson of the British Parliament. Judge Boyd M. Leedom, chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, is president of the national group. Abraham Vereide of Washington is executive director.

"The groups consist of leaders who meet weekly for Christian fellowship, Bible study, discussion and prayer in a non-sectarian and non-partisan setting," explains Vereide. "The idea was to develop not an institution, but a movement, a strategy to promote a spiritually strong America and to develop men and women committed to Christ in key positions of leadership the world over—a leadership led by God."

On Feb. 7, 1958, the national group will hold its annual big prayer breakfast at the Mayflower Hotel here. President Eisenhower, members of the Supreme Court, and the Cabinet will be among those in attendance.

Latest Eskimo Igloo Is Made Of Plastic Foam

OTTAWA, Ont. (AP) — Even snow-houses aren't snowhouses anymore. An Eskimo family of three in Canada's Arctic is living in an igloo made of plastic foam.

"It is an experiment," says J. I. Nicol of the government's Northern Affairs Department. "Next year we may build a larger type snowhouse, divided off into rooms."

The plastic igloo was set up last summer on Baffin Island. It provides accommodation for the Eskimo family accustomed to the close quarters of a one-room igloo made of snow. A camp-type stove

Like all igloos it resembles a large overturned mixing bowl. It is made of light-weight squares, complete with chimney, ventilation slot and a door with a door-knob. Light comes through it.

Ashville

Jack Irwin left Tuesday for Fla where he plans to make an extended visit.

The annual Eighteenth District picnic of the Knights of Pythias will be held Sunday afternoon and evening at the Ashville Community Park. The district includes Franklin, Madison and Pickaway Counties. There will be entertainment from noon on with a basket picnic dinner in the evenings. Coffee and milk will be furnished. Round and square dancing to the music of Todde Reed and his orchestra will be the evening entertainment. All Pythians and friends are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Swayer visited several days recently with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Swayer, Sharon and Bryan, at West Lafayette, Ohio.

The Ashville Knights of Pythias Lodge held its first meeting since the Summer recess Wednesday (9-11-57) with plans for an early initiation of members being the chief business topic. The movie, "Damon and Pythias", was shown.

Hand Grenade Sends Policeman Ducking

DOVER, N. J. (AP) — Six-year-old Paul Delvey walked into police headquarters Sunday night and dropped a hand grenade on the desk saying: "My grandmother told me to give you this."

Lt. Joseph Petzelka first ducked under the desk and then recovered, running outside with the grenade. He called a demolition expert who disarmed the weapon and found it empty.

Paul's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Delvey, later told police she had found the war souvenir while cleaning out a closet.

Automatic Throttle Due

For years advocates of compulsory speed control on the highways have been trying to force motorists and auto makers to accept speed governors on their cars. The lack of success of governor enthusiasts in convincing either car owners or manufacturer is apparent. There is not a single built-in governor in U. S. cars now on the highways.

If the latest invention of the Perfect Circle Corporation is successful, there will be no need for further governor agitation. This invention, called the Speedostat, is part governor and part automatic pilot.

By setting a predetermined speed on a dash indicator, the driver is able to coast along at the set speed with foot off the accelerator. The Speedostat adjusts the gasoline flow for hills to keep the speed constant. When the driver wishes to decelrate, the slightest touch on the brake pedal releases the automatic control.

By applying back pressure to the accelerator at the prescribed speed, the Speedostat warns the driver that he has reached the speed limit. This pressure can be overcome by a heavier foot on the accelerator, but it is sufficient to warn the driver that he is exceeding the limit he set for himself.

Some 1958 models will offer the Speedostat as optional equipment under various names and at a cost of "less than $100."

Whether the idea of a semi-effective governor will be a deterrent to speeders remains to be seen, but one conclusion seems certain to be reached. If sales of the Speedostat are substantial, it will be apparent that many motorists are concerned with speed on the highway and are willing to pay the additional cost of a gadget to control their impulses.

File 13 for Chain Letters

Chain letters, which have intermittently plagued officials of the postal service for years, are the subject of a recent blast from the office of Postmaster General Summerfield in Washington.

The chief inspector's office is investigating the application of chain letter methods to U. S. Savings Bonds. In this case the list is not sent by mail, but is exchanged by hand.

In due course, if the chain is not broken (and it is a big "if") the participant will receive a "harvest of bonds." Of course few, if any, do.

"Chain letter schemes always turn out so the few who start them may get back a little more than their investment — at the risk of criminal prosecution — while practically all the others lose their money," Mr. Summerfield said. "Such outcome is inevitable as the supply of interested persons is soon exhausted."

On the subject of legality of chain letters the Postmaster General has this to say:

"The U. S. courts have ruled that chain letters are both frauds and lotteries. It makes no difference whether the solicitation is for money, or bonds, or anything else of value. Whether the chain is broken is a matter of chance which makes it a lottery. Whether the participant will get nothing, a small amount, or be lucky and receive a substantial amount depends upon chance."

Chain letters should be promptly deposited in the waste basket.

Let a Cat Be Your Sleep Guide

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Did anyone in history except Doris Day set out by railroad from Los Angeles to New York with a husband, a fine son and only five gallons of ice cream?

Probably not. But Doris, born Doris Kappelhoff in Cincinnati, arrived here with her family intact. But most of the ice cream was gone. Her big favorite entrée: Chocolate mixed with hunks of marshmallows and almonds.

Doris, a former dance band singer, recently completed her 21st film, a movie called "The Pajama Game."

Doris is a breezy girl with freckles. She has vitality, charm, and stirs an air of friendliness.

She is fun to interview, from the standpoint of a reporter who had never met her before, because she has the easy adjustment of a $2 bill in a $1 crowd.

It was my idea to ask her, since she seems so untroubled in a troubled world, what was her recipe on how to live better.

"You'll make me look foolish," she protested over a plate of moo goo guy pan at a Chinese restaurant called the "Gold Coin."

After she was sure I wasn't trying to stick her with a chopstick, she said these things:

"Most people think that living is racing the clock. I don't."

"I think maybe people should live a little easier, as people seem to do in Paris. Every country has a hint to offer on how to live."

"Such as the idea of taking a nap after lunch. Or like in Japan, where they take off their shoes before they eat and rest their feet."

Doris, who is the uncrowned ice-cream-eating champion of Hollywood, continued:

"I like to sleep 10 hours a night. In our field there are many people with insomnia who worry and worry and still have to get up at 5:30 in the morning."

Doris Day's prescription for insomnia:

"Buy a cat and sleep whenever it does."

Integration To Take Time

By George Sokolsky

It is now 92 years since the end of the War Between the States but the essential problems remain that were dealt with in the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, namely states rights with regard to local questions and attitudes; political equality between whites and Negroes; and the concomitant Negro aspirations for social equality.

These are the issues and it only confirms the truism that it is impossible to legislate emotional questions. Even in the North, where there is supposed to be no color prejudice, Negroes are forced into ghettos, are charged higher rents than whites pay for the same type of housing, are segregated in the schools in the larger cities; the ghettoizing of Negro housing; Puerto Ricans, Cubans and other Latin Americans are included in the general resistance to color equality.

This is probably the most serious domestic problem that faces the American people. It is an emotional response to a condition and therefore other human values do not apply. Both sides tend to misinterpret the responses of the other: Negroes are told that all whites, out of a sense of superiority, despise them, which, of course, is not true; whites are told that all Negroes want to marry or seduce or rape white girls which is obviously untrue in the statistics of the country.

If only the politicians and professional agitators on both sides could be taken out of this situation, it is more than likely that a way would be found out of the current dilemma which is doing infinite harm to the United States, particularly in view of our current troubles in the Arabian countries. It makes for excellent propaganda against the United States.

Nevertheless, wisdom counsels slow action. The Negro came to the United States as slaves, purchased, kidnapped, shanghaied and sold as chattel. Some were treated kindly; some were treated with unspeakable brutality. The South is economically in a better condition in 1957 than it was in 1860; slave labor drove the Southern planters into debt; free labor has made the South increasingly rich, until today it is becoming more and more important as a prime industrial center of the United States.

Nobody in this country, not even the most violently anti-Negro groups, is advocating a reversion to former conditions, but in the Southern states there are elements who deeply fear the "mulattoizing" of the United States through social relations among the various races of man that compose the American population. It is this complex which is behind all the troubles that face both North and South in the integration of the schools.

Unfortunately the bitterness engendered this year will not die when the present fracas are over. They will leave lasting emotions, vengeful, retaliatory emotions on both sides. The worst of it all is that a new breed of politicians is appearing who make a business of stirring trouble over the Negro question.

As usual the previous record of some of these politicians is none too good; occasionally one finds Communist affiliations in a prior opportunism. There is always more to be made out of disturbing the peace than in trying to find peaceful, quiet means for human beings living together in cooperation, each according to his own beliefs and human relationships.

How this situation affects people appears in the petition of some Louisianans against Archbishop Rummel of New Orleans. These Catholics appealed to the Pope. Surely, they must have known that the Vatican could not over-ride a Bishop in a matter of this sort. Furthermore, the Roman Catholic church includes many races.

There are Negro Bishops and Chinese Bishops, and even St. Augustine was born in Tagaste, which is North Africa, where nobody could claim a north European ancestry. He was brought up in Carthage. Among the strongest figures in the early Church were Paul, a Jew, and Augustine, a North African, certainly of a dark skin.

It was, then, not to have been expected that the Pope would oppose Archbishop Rummel on integration; yet so profound were the emotions of the petitioners that they took a most unusual action, surely anticipating no favorable reply.

Time alone can cure. This problem will not be solved in the year 1957 and men of good-will will not force the issue. Nothing good can come of force and violence.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

REP. BROOKS HAYS, of Arkansas, tells this story about a meeting of a ladies' club (mostly wives of U. S. congressmen) in Washington, D. C. The treasurer, more cheerful and unperturbed than one might expect under the circumstances, reported a steadily mounting deficit. One member promptly demanded the floor to propose, "Let's contribute our entire deficit to the Red Cross."

Another member didn't like this idea at all. "The Red Cross does a good job," she conceded, "but the Salvation Army needs help, too. I propose, therefore, that we give 50 per cent of our deficit to the Red Cross and the other 75 per cent to the Salvation Army!" The motion was carried unanimously.

A clairvoyant was caught faking his act, and was rushed off to the local hoosegow. "Thirty days," decreed the judge, "just to remind you that the way of the transgressor is hard."

Elimination Diet One Way Of Determining Allergies

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Skin tests have some value in determining whether a person is allergic to specific foods, although some doctors argue the point.

But since such tests require only a couple of hours, and alternative procedures take several weeks, they are at least worth a try in many cases.

In the event your doctor does not recommend skin tests or these measures fail to produce the desired results, then there are two ways to determine just what foods may be bothering you.

The elimination diet probably is the most widely used method. While there are numerous variations, there are only two basic types.

One is a rather strict diet comprising only four or five foods which generally do not cause allergic reactions. Peas, rice, pears and lamb are examples.

The other type of diet is not quite as rigid. In this, you can eat just about anything except those foods which are most likely to cause an allergy, such as eggs, milk, wheat and most cereals.

If your customary allergic symptoms do not appear within four days to a week, we can pretty safely assume that they are caused by the foods which have been eliminated from your diet. Then, one by one, other foods are added.

When an allergic reaction occurs, it is apparent, in most cases, that the most recently added food is the offender.

Of course, if the original diets do not relieve the allergy then we can assume that one or more of these foods are trouble-makers. In that case, you'll have to switch to another basic diet and begin gradually adding the foods on your original diet.

Generally, doctors recommend that three trials be given to suspected foods, unless the severity of the allergic attack prohibits it.

An even more simple method of tracing foods to which you may be allergic is to keep a diary.

After each meal jot down everything you have eaten and drunk. Note also the time any allergic symptoms begin. This should give you some idea of what food or beverage is causing the trouble.

Question and Answer

D. H.: My voice has been getting deeper. What could cause this?

Answer: There may be a thickening or polyp or other type of tumor on one of the vocal cords. It would be well for you to consult an ear, nose and throat specialist about this as soon as possible.

Pope Urging Jesuits To Shun Tobacco

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP)—Pope Pius XII has urged members of the Society of Jesus to shun "superfluous" things—among them tobacco.

The pontiff received generals of the society, now the largest single religious order of the Roman Catholic Church, in special audience here. His address, urged the Jesuits to follow the austere rules of St. Ignatius.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—On Nov. 7 the Russians will celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution. They will point with pride and make claims to progress made under communism in those four decades.

Already the American State Department has started trying to offset Russian claims to progress by publishing a 50-page booklet which belittles the Soviet record in such diverse fields as these:

Unionism, treatment of minorities, political freedom, equal rights for women, crime, religion, employment, housing, food, prostitution.

Nevertheless, State Department people are concerned about the real and undeniable progress the Russians have made in other ways. For instance: Science, the development of atomic weapons and jet planes.

In those 40 years Russia has risen to be the second most powerful nation on earth.

Yet, after 40 years of Communist agitation, promises and propaganda, not a single country has voluntarily turned to communism in open and free elections. The conquests have been by force or subversion.

As an example of how political liberty has disappeared—instead of gaining ground—in Russia the State Department quotes Lenin in 1903. That was when he wanted liberty himself and 14 years before he had the power to suppress it.

He said: "Political liberty means the right of the people to choose their own officials, to call any meetings they please for the discussion of all the affairs of state . . ."

The department notes that while Czarist Russia was the least democratic in Europe, at least it permitted a wide variety of political parties. The Communists wiped out all parties but their own after they took over in 1917.

The Soviet constitution does not allow freedom to organize political parties. The police even control mimeograph machines which might be used for turning out political pamphlets in opposition to the Communist dictatorship.

The State Department quotes Lenin's advocacy of free speech and news—before the Revolution—and what he said in 1920, three years after the Revolution:

"The periodical and nonperiodical press and all publishing enterprises must be entirely subordinate to the central committee of the party . . ."

And the department adds on its own: "Of the literate population of the world, the Soviet people have the least access to news."

The department also ridicules Russian claims to full employment. "Not only has unmistakable unemployment appeared in the U.S.S.R. but it comes at a time when the claim to full employment was one of the remaining props on which to base their economic propaganda . . ."

Democrats Delighted as Ike Continues Benson in Ag Job

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats grinned in political delight Saturday at President Eisenhower's apparent decision to ride along with Secretary of Agriculture Benson through the 1958 congressional campaign.

Sen. Mansfield of Montana, the assistant Democratic leader, said Benson's Friday announcement that Eisenhower and he have agreed he shall continue indefinitely in the Cabinet "leaves only the farmers to be checked."

"Judging from the sorry mess into which the secretary has steered administration farm policies, Mr. Benson is likely to be our secret weapon in 1958," Mansfield said.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) observed in a separate interview that Benson's announcement "is bad news for the American farmer."

Democrats generally believe that by attacking Benson's policies they can increase their Senate and House strength in the agricultural Middle West, once the stronghold of the Republicans.

However, Sen. Bennett (R-Utah) said he was convinced after two days of talking to farmers in North Dakota on a recent trip that there is an underlying understanding of what Benson is trying to do.

"North Dakota is a hotbed of Farmers Union activity and there has been a lot of criticism of the secretary there," Bennett said. "But in talking to the farmers I found the general reaction was that Benson was right in seeking a solution of the farm problem on the basis of something other than subsidies."

"The farmers seemed to think this thing had to be done but that the administration or Benson had been inept in selling the necessity for it."

"The Democrats left a farm program when they went out of office. With a Democratic-controlled Congress, Benson hasn't had a free hand or a full opportunity to demonstrate that his ideas will work."

Benson has been under fire from Democrats for what they contend is the administration's failure to deal with low farm prices in an era when other segments of the economy are in a spiral of inflation.

There have been frequent demands for Benson's resignation, the latest of which came from Sen. Proxmire (D-Wis.). Proxmire's victory over Republican former Gov. Walter J. Kohler in a special senatorial election in Wisconsin was attributed in part by Democrats and some Republicans to dissatisfaction in the farm precincts.

All-Male University Invaded by Women

SANTA CLARA, Calif. (AP)—For the first time in the school's 106 years women undergraduates have registered at the University of Santa Clara.

Students of the former all-male Jesuit school promptly trotted out signs demanding "we want dances" as 24 nurses from O'Connor Hospital signed for one-year liberal arts courses.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astounding statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H* At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Fifteen years ago I married in wartime enthusiasm, but experience has proved it to be a sound move. Today I am happily married, have two delightful daughters and a fine home life. But there is something nagging me.

Immediately after marriage and a short honeymoon, I went to a new camp; and as my bride had a fine job at home, and we knew that I was scheduled to go overseas, she didn't accompany me. At this camp I had an affair, lasting several months, with an officer's wife, a woman whom I had known before entering the Army. After I went abroad, a child was born—unquestionably our child. I was really happy about it at the time, as we felt we really loved one another.

In parting, we agreed more or less that at war's end we would somehow straighten things out, so we could marry. And by pre-arrangement I didn't write her, for fear of compromising her. Thus all my letters were for my wife; and in three years' correspondence with her, I realized it would be foolish (and even more selfish) to leave her. So when I came home I picked up a new life with my wife, and never regretted it.

I've had no contact with the other woman since 1942, although I've heard in a very roundabout way that she is still with her husband. Now I must make a business trip to her city soon and would like to call and pay her a visit—partly to see her and make some apology for my part in a silly affair. But mostly to get a look at the boy who is my son. I have no sons and would like to meet the lad who, otherwise, would bear my name.

Perhaps I am only being selfish again. But I have kept this inside me for a very long time. I think if I could see him just once, I could contain myself until he is a man and I can seek his acquaintance. One thing sure, neither he nor the man he believes to be his father will ever learn what actually happened. I will be grateful for your guidance.

E. B.

DEAR E.B.: Frankly I can't think of anything more ill-advised than your inclination to initiate a visit with the other woman, to grave-dig, as it were, about a past matter and to get a line on her son. Notice I said: her son.

It would be adding insult to injury, insofar as she is concerned, to weakly apologize for that chapter of self-indulgence, as a "silly affair" from your present view. Since it was construed at the time to be an expression (however mistaken) of mutual real love, you had better let it stay buried in that assumption. Such is the decent attitude.

You suggest that perhaps you are only being selfish again, in wanting to get next to the boy who might "otherwise" (as you say) bear your name. Right-O. Selfish is the word for it—a potentially very damaging kind of selfishness. You might be opening a Pandora's box of troubles for two households, if you go back to pry into these lives you deserted some 14 years ago.

In my opinion, all things considered, there is no social validity to your private conviction of being the boy's real father. You may be his natural sire; but if his mother-on-the-job had since before he was born, the lad is that man's son. They are inextricably interwoven into each other's being, and you have no ties or claims whatever.

So, the right-minded course is to stay on your side of the fence, and take care of your family and household obligations, where you are. Keep out of the other woman's life. Don't go butting in, stirring up the residual deposit of anxiety and guilt feelings that you left her to cope with, when you walked out of the picture, long ago.

ACQUIRED SOME YEARS AGO by the Brooklyn museum solely for its wrappings, this mummy suddenly posed a legal problem for Curator John Cooney. He decided to dispose of it by burying it in the backyard of the museum. He was informed a burial permit would be necessary and he couldn't dig up a death certificate for the man who died in Egypt about 1,700 years ago. Then he thought of shipping it to a smaller museum—and was told the Health department also required a birth certificate for shipping a body. Finally, the department said it would issue a special permit for shipping an "anatomical specimen—mummy," and the problem was solved. (International)

Steel Output Hike Expected

Added Mill Facilities Credited for Boost

CLEVELAND (P)—Production facilities added this year will boost the nation's steelmaking capacity by 7.6 million net tons, Steel Magazine reported in its issue out today.

The metalworking weekly said the national capacity by year-end would be 141 million tons a year compared with 133.5 million tons at the beginning of the year, an increase of 5.6 per cent.

It added that additional facilities planned for next year would boost the capacity another 5.3 million tons.

The industry is preparing for the 1960s, when substantial increases in demand for steel are expected. The magazine explained that by that time, family formations are expected to increase as children born in the wave of births in the 1940s start marrying.

"The more families there are, the more facilities and equipment there must be to serve them," the magazine said. "This will take steel."

By the start of 1958, Steel said, the nation's steelmaking capacity will be 59 per cent bigger than it was at the start of World War II and 42 per cent greater than at the beginning of the Korean conflict.

Expansions in production capacity have resulted in lessening the consumer's zeal to buy steel because they know a bigger supply is available, but current demand is sufficient to maintain output in the low 80s. Steel mill operations last week were at 81.5 per cent of rated capacity, a drop of 1.5 points during the week, but scrap prices continued to decline. Steel's price composite on finished steel was unchanged at $146.19 a net ton, while the composite on steelmaking scrap dropped $1.66 to $50.7 a gross ton.

held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Porter.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hosler, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Furniss, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Sheets, son, Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Elbee Jones, son Stanley, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, Janet, Joyce and Jimmy and the host and hostess.

Boris Morros' Role as Spy Not Surprising to Friends

Editor's Note: Boris Morros, onetime Hollywood musical director, recently was revealed to have served 12 years as a U. S. counterespionage. Following is the first of three articles giving recollections of Morros' light-hearted days in filmland.

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (P)—Hearing that Boris Morros had spied on the Russians for 12 years and helped crack a spy ring, a former Hollywood associate of his remarked: "At first I couldn't believe it. Boris a spy! Impossible! But then I realized it could be. Boris could charm anyone—even the Russians."

Said another: "Boris as a cloak-and-dagger man? It's very bad casting. I worked closely with him for years and never thought of him as anything but an affable extrovert. In all those years, I never once heard him discuss politics."

This sampling gives you an indication of the shock with which Hollywood received the revelation of Morros as an American spy. For he was a memorable character in a town where characters are a dime a dozen.

Nearly everyone I talked to remembered the rosary.

"It was a string of beads he kept in his desk," said a publicity man. "He was always bringing it out and whirling it around. If you asked—and even if you didn't—he'd tell you that Rasputin gave it to him."

"No one really believed it, any more than we believed his stories that he played fiddle for the Czar. But Boris is such a fantastic character that it could have happened."

An associate in the Paramount music department recalled: "He looked exactly like a Buddha with his fat little body, his moon face and bland eyes. When he first came to Hollywood in 1935, he used a trick to attract attention. He had his shirts and ties made especially for him in New York. 'And what colors they were! The wildest combinations of plaids and stripes! They attracted attention, all right.'"

Another co-worker testified to Morros' shrewdness: "He was too smart to be temperamental. Always he would present a charming front. You could insult him and he wouldn't get back at you—not for three years perhaps."

"He was a great improviser. He could give you dozens of ideas on the spur of the moment. They might have been borrowed from who knows where. But they were generally exciting ideas."

One studio official remarked that Morros had to make a production of everything. The official sent a memo asking Morros for a small piece of music. Morros called him and said: "We're in show business. We don't do things by memos. Come over and we talk about it." The result was a lengthy conference.

Morros could also be a trickster. At the pre-Christmas studio party, he would carry a vodka bottle and insist that everyone drink with him. While everyone was getting happily potted, Morros would swig from his vodka bottle, which was filled with water.

A notable occasion was the Christmas that came while Leopold Stokowski was making "Big Broadcast of 1938" at Paramount. Morros commandeered a small truck used to pull sets around the lot. Hooked to the truck were a series of trailer platforms.

On the platforms Morros stationed his friends and musicians. Stokowski was placed on the truck and he conducted with his expressive hands. This strange train toured the lot while the occupants played their instruments and sang carols in Russian accents.

Only one studio official ever got an indication of Morros' connection with the Russians. He was invited to a wartime party at the Russian consulate. Present were various town screwballs and others who were to give unfriendly testimony to congressional committees.

Present, too, was chubby, smiling Boris Morros, sipping vodka and slapping the backs of the Russians, who had no notion that he was working for the U.S. government.

Will Braves Blow Big Chance Again?

Milwaukee's Lead In NL Race Is Cut To Only 2 1/2 Games

Are the Milwaukee Braves going to blow it again?

Once more the Braves must ask themselves that searching question as the pressure mounts in the National League race. In 12 short days, an 8 1/2-game lead has shrunk to 2 1/2 games.

Encouraged at the sight of the staggering Braves, the charging St. Louis Cardinals have won 9 of their last 11. In that same period Milwaukee has won only 3 of 11.

Day by day the three-game series between the two clubs in Milwaukee Sept. 23, 24, 25 looks more likely.

The American League race, on the other hand, appears to be over. The New York Yankees, with a 5 1/2-game lead and only 10 to play, should be beyond the reach of the persistent Chicago White Sox.

Warren Spahn, shooting for his 20th victory, coddled a 2-1 lead into the ninth inning Sunday only to have Philadelphia tie the score in the ninth and finally beat Milwaukee in the 10th 3-2. After two hits sent Spahn to the showers, Ted Kazanski, a .255 hitter, singled home the winning run.

With Stan Musial back in the starting lineup and chipping in with three hits in six trips, the Cardinals thumped Pittsburgh twice 9-6 and 11-3 behind Herm Wehmeier and Sam Jones. Two big innings did the trick — six runs in the fifth inning of the opener and five in the first inning of the second game.

Cincinnati slammed four home runs, chasing Don Newcombe, in an 11-6 romp over Brooklyn. Hal Jeffcoat hit one of the homers and took an 11-2 lead into the ninth before he fell apart.

Ed Haas, a rookie outfielder from Fort Worth, delivered a pinch single with the bases loaded and the score tied for the Chicago Cubs 7-6 edge over the New York Giants. The rookie's hit made it a double-header sweep for the Cubs who won the opener 6-2 behind veteran Bob Rush. Willie Mays had four hits for the Giants including his 34th homer, to hike his average to .339.

The Yanks hopped on their "cousins" from Kansas City 5-3 and 3-0. Tommy Byrne's three-run pinch homer did the job in the opener. Don Larsen pitched his first shutout since his perfect game in the 1956 World Series when he held the A's to three singles in the second game. Tony Kubek and Harry Simpson homered.

Chicago trailed going into the ninth but scored three against Washington for a 3-1 victory on the two-hit pitching of Bob Keegan and rookie Barry Latman. Earl Torgerson's two-run double was the most important hit in the rally. Jim Lemon's 450-foot homer was the only Washington score.

Jim Bunning won his 19th for Detroit 7-1, with a five-hitter against Boston, positively eliminating the Red Sox from the pennant race. Al Kaline's 23rd homer started the Tigers on the way to their 4-3 second-game victory for Frank Lary.

Baltimore moved into fifth place ahead of Cleveland by taking a pair from the Indians 5-4 in 16 innings and 4-3. A wild throw by Vic Wertz on an attempted double play gave the Orioles the first game after Joe Caffie's homer tied the score for Cleveland in the ninth and an Indian triple play snuffed out a Baltimore ninth-inning rally. Jim Busby's catch of a potential three-run homer saved the second game in the eighth inning.

Milwaukee appeared to have its game in hand with Spahn holding a one-run lead in the ninth. However, a pinch single by Willie Jones, a single by Richie Ashburn and Chico Fernandez's safe bunt quickly loaded the bases. The tying run scored as Ed Bouchee hit into a double play. Bouchee's 11th homer had given the Phils a run in the fourth.

After two hits off Spahn, Manager Fred Haney called on Bob Trowbridge, who yielded the winning hit to Kazanski. Relief man Dick Farrell was the winner.

Ken Boyer and Walker Cooper hit home runs for St. Louis during a five-run spurt in the fifth inning of the first game. Wally Moon hit two in the second game. Neither Wehmeier nor Jones lasted the route as the Cards hung defeats on Ronnie Kline and Art Swanson. The Yanks' Bob Turley trailed

Ohio's 'Second' Squirrel Season Gets Start Today

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio's "second" squirrel season opened today for 56 counties. The "first" season arrived Sept. 2 for 32 southern counties.

Hunters are allowed to take four squirrels per day with a possession limit after the first day of eight. Hunting hours are from daylight to dark until the season closes Oct. 31.

But hunters had better find something other than telephone cables and glass insulators to take practice shots at.

A law went into effect today which provides a penalty of a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisonment of not less than one year, nor more than three, or both, for maliciously damaging any type of public utility equipment.

Hayes Hints Buckeyes May Try Passing

COLUMBUS (AP)—Coach Woody Hayes, whose Ohio State Buckeyes managed to complete only 15 passes over the entire football season last year, admits he is "trying some new stuff."

Just what it is, the Buckeye mentor isn't saying, except to add that "we'll probably open our attack a bit." In fact, he says, "our diversified attack may surprise everyone."

Hayes has been putting his men through a steady pace of two drills a day. Today, he said, the squad begins practicing single drills with a full-scale scrimmage Wednesday to get the players in shape for the season's opener Sept. 28 against Texas Christian.

The Buckeyes lost 14 lettermen last year, but Hayes sees a lot of promise in some of the new men. Jim Houston, a 216-pounder from Cochrato (Miss.) 4-3; Demon Van (Short) 5-5; Cairo (Garby) 6-6. Times: 2:15, 2:16.

The Buckeye coach also had high praise for tackle Dick Schaf-rath of Wooster; right half Dick LeBeau of London, "the most consistently good of all our ball-carriers, and rival quarterbacks Frank Kremblas and Andy Okulovich, both juniors.

Kremblas, an Akron youth, has the inside track for the starting quarterback slot, Hayes said. He adds that Okulovich, who hails from Cleveland, is the team's best passer and may call the shots if Hayes decides to open his offense.

Cardinals Order Tickets for Series

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, flushed by a double-header sweep and bolstered by the return of the injured Stan Musial, Sunday ordered World Series tickets printed and stuck two scouts on the New York Yankees.

The Cards are only 2 1/2 games shy of front-running Milwaukee. Immediately ahead, Tuesday and Wednesday, are two games with Brooklyn.

Looking farther ahead, St. Louis skipper Fred Hutchinson predicted the pennant will be decided in the Cardinals' three-game series at Milwaukee Sept. 23-24-25.

Air Force Lieutenant Cops Amateur Crown

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Lt. Hillman Robbins has succeeded Harvie Ward Jr. as king of amateur golf.

Ward ruled the amateurs in 1955-56, but he was ineligible this year. Robbins, an accounting officer in the Air Force from Memphis, Tenn., defeated Dr. Frank (Bud) Taylor 5 and 4 Saturday in the 36-hole windup of the 57th National Amateur golf tourney.

Robbins, who had been serving a prison term for car theft, had been sounding the siren while driving around town.

"I've always had a desire to play fireman," he said.

Spec Martin New Pickaway Shoe Champion

Virgil (Spec) Martin, Circleville, is new Pickaway County horse shoe pitching champion. He scored a total of 266 points Saturday night to top three other finalists in the county pitch-off at the Pickaway County Fair.

Bob Wilkinson, Circleville, scored 240 points for second place. G. R. Badger, Ashville, came in third with 220 points and W. Sollars, Orient, was fourth with 197 points.

Each finalist tossed 150 shoes. Martin's ringier total was 70 of 150. Wilkinson had 55 of 150, Badger 54 of 150 and Sollars 45 of 150. The top two men were presented trophies and the other two received a new pair of horse shoes each. Last year's champion was Harold Whipple.

Ray Goodman was tourney manager. He has formed a horse shoe pitching club with 36 members. Two more courts are to be added here and Goodman plans to run next year's tourney in two classes — A and B.

Yoho Elected Captain Of Miami Redskin '11'

OXFORD (AP)—Members of the Miami University football squad have elected as their captain Mack Yoho, 205-pound senior end of East Canton. The university announced the election Sunday. Yoho was used as a tackle last year when Miami had a shortage of linemen.

Circleville Bird Winner

Virgil Russell of Circleville is the owner of a brown hen which won the 15-mile pigeon race from Winchester, Ky., to Lancaster yesterday with an average speed of 1,080.74 yards per minute.

The James Hervey loft was second, third, fourth and fifth. Russell's other birds were seventh, 10th and 12th.

Fred Wolfe of Circleville scored 13th, 14th and 15th in the event which drew 276 birds.

Plans are under way for the formation of a Circleville Racing Pigeon Club next year. Those interested should contact Russell or Wolfe. Next Sunday the birds will race from Corbin, Ky., a distance of 200 miles.

1957 Browns Said Fastest 'In Years'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Coach Paul E. Brown has tagged as "our fastest team in recent years" the 1957 Cleveland Browns club which plays its sixth and final exhibition game Friday night in Chicago against the Bears.

Brown said that "on the whole I was encouraged" by the Browns' 23-7 triumph here Saturday night over the Detroit Lions. In the exhibition opener at Detroit a month earlier the Lions beat Cleveland 20-10.

"I'm convinced we can play anyone and give them a real wounding," Brown said. "I like the fact that we were still in there leathering at the finish."

Chuck Noll intercepted a Bobby Layne pass and ran 60 yards for a first-quarter touchdown, and field goals of 14 and 40 yards by Lou Groza boosted the Browns' halftime margin to 13-0.

In the final quarter the Browns got another touchdown on a 13-yard pass from John Borton to Preston Carpenter, and Groza booted a 46-yard field goal. The Lions broke into the scoring in

Sam Snead Cinch In Dallas Open

DALLAS (AP)—Sam Snead, the greatest winner in golf history, was poised for victory in his 96th tournament today and there was no one to even hint the colorful old slammer wouldn't make it.

He led the $40,000 Dallas Open by 8 strokes going into the final round because of a 60 that tied the world's record and a 5-under-par 66 Sunday that gave him 196 for 54 holes.

In a tie for second place at 204 were Al Besselink, the big blond from Grossinger's, N.Y., and Earl Stewart, the Dallas resident pro, who got 70 and 72 respectively.

Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, was 13 strokes off the pace.

the final quarter on a half-yard plunge by Tom Tracy, climaxing a 60-yard drive in which a 43-yard pass from Layne to Dave Middleton ate up most of the distance. Quarterback Milt Plum, rookie from Penn State, completed nine of 17 passes and did what Brown called "a pretty good job" against the Lions in his first exhibition.

Marty's Pilot, Bettina Split Free-For-All Purse

Marty's Pilot chalked up a 2:12.2 heat in the free-for-all race at the Pickaway County Fair Saturday night for the top time in the six-dash card. Rains made the track heavy.

However, Bettina, driven by Sam Miles, came back in the second heat of the free-for-all event for a victory in 2:13.1 to split the $400 purse. Mac Vo driven by H. Richardson, Chillicothe, placed second in both dashes.

Susie W., owned by G. W. Osborne, Winchester, and driven by young Ronald McConaughy, scored a double win in the two dashes of the 20 class pace. His times were 2:14.3 and 2:14.2. Vo Grat-tan and Watchim's Heir traded second and third places both times.

Castie Prince, owned and driven by Clarence Myers, Circleville, topped both ends of the 24 Class trot. His times were 2:15 and 2:16.

Indians Seek To Hold On to Fifth Place

BALTIMORE (AP)—Instead of trying to overtake fourth-place Detroit, it appears Cleveland's Indians will be striving in the last two weeks of the season to stay out of sixth place.

Two one-run losses to Baltimore Sunday moved the Orioles ahead of the Tribe, and the two clubs meet tonight for the final time this year. The Indians can even the standings with Baltimore by winning tonight. But they face an uphill battle in the remaining 11 games because Cleveland plays six with second-place Chicago while Baltimore is booked for six with seventh-place Washington.

A four-hour, 42-minute opener, featured by a Cleveland triple play, was lost 5-4 in the 16th inning when Indian first baseman Vic Wertz threw wild to second.

The Orioles clustered all their runs in the third inning in beating Don Mossi in the nightcap 4-3.

Joe Caffie homered in the ninth with two out to tie the first-game score at 4-4, and in the Tribe half the Indians erased the Orioles with the fourth triple play of the major league season and the third in the American League.

Besides Caffie's homer, rookie Dick Brown had a home run for the Indians in the first game, and George Woodling rapped his 19th round-tripper off winner Ray Moore in the nightcap.

Purdue Coach Says Breaks To Be Needed This Season

LA FAYETTE, Ind. (AP)—Despite the graduation of quarterback Len Dawson, first Big Ten player ever to lead the conference three straight seasons in passing and total offense, Purdue's Boilermakers are far from downcast this season.

Jack Mollenkopf, in his second head coaching season at Purdue, says the Boilermakers could have a better record than last year "with the breaks." Purdue's overall mark in 1956 was 3-4-2 with 1-4-2 in the Big Ten for a seventh-place tie with Illinois.

"I think we were better a year ago at this time, but I don't know why," said Mollenkopf. "This is not a big squad, but I think it's a solid squad. I honestly do."

Purdue has had a great line of

2 World Speedboat Records Chalked Up

NEW MARTINSVILLE, W. Va. (AP)—Two world speedboat records were set in Sunday's running of the 38th annual New Martinsville Regatta over a windswept Ohio River course.

Ray Lynn of Philadelphia, driving "Alley-Cat" owned by Al Goza, also of Philadelphia, skipped over the choppy 2-mile course at 73.952 m.p.h. to set the new 280 cubic inch hydroplane record.

Earlier in the day, Hank Vogel of Webster, N. Y., gunned his flame-red "My Sin III" at a record-topping speed of 80.573 m.p.h. in the 225 cubic inch class.

Redlegs Show Another Binge Of Big Hits

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati's Redlegs, when on one of this year's infrequent slugging outbursts, reminds the reminiscent fan of the 1956 crew of high-hitting stalwarts.

Four home runs and eight other hits Sunday provided a vigorous reminder of last year's Redlegs as the Rhinelanders hammered out an 11-6 defeat of Brooklyn.

And a notable feature of this year's team — paltry pitching — didn't show up until the ninth inning.

That was the point where starter Hal Jeffcoat, who had craftily given up only five hits and two runs, ran into big trouble.

Four Brooklyn runs came across before Manager Birdie Tebbets decided his hurler had had enough and called in veteran Bill Kennedy to shut off the rally.

Kennedy wasted no time, getting Randy Jackson to ground out and Gil Hodges to hit an easy pop fly and end the game.

A grounder booted by Roy McMillan with the bases loaded accounted for two of those Dodger markers, and two more came in on successive singles.

The Redlegs had to come from behind twice before busting the game open in middle innings.

The win gave the Reds a fighting chance at the National League third place, currently held by Brooklyn, six games ahead.

The final Brooklyn game here comes tonight with Johnny Podres slated to oppose Johnny Klippstein on the mound.

Hank Bivins of Cincinnati hit safely in 23 straight games during the summer for the Redlegs' Class C Visalia team in the California League. He is a third baseman.

Celebrate with us at Griffiths as we start our 25th year in business in Circleville.

We have been working hard securing special merchandise to bring to you our customers, the best buys possible for this anniversary sale.

In addition, we want you to share with us in gifts of your choice, an additional bonus as our thanks for your loyal support of our store over the years.

Here is how the sale works...

Select the specially priced living room suite or sectional of your choice, then choose $50.00 worth of free gifts. It could be that you need step tables, cocktail tables, lamps or any of the hundreds of furniture items we carry. Just choose what you need with your $50 bonus.

Bedroom suites carry a $40.00 in free gifts, and the entire furniture department is at your disposal to select whatever you need. It might be a mattress, chair or any of the many, many furniture items.

Dinettes specially priced with a twenty dollar free gift make this a mighty interesting proposition. If you need a dinette you'll find a large selection with 4, 6 or 8 chairs with beauty and prices to amaze you.

Come in and join with us in this celebration.
